

TODAY WE EAT SICILIAN

Director Carmelo Nucera
 Genre Cooking show
 Length 100 episodes of 8 minutes
 Language Italian with English subtitles
 Producer Kalos

"TODAY WE EAT SICILIAN" is a culinary and cultural trip in Sicily. 10 of the most appreciated Chefs from Sicily explain how to prepare typical traditional dishes of the Sicilian cuisine introducing some secrets about their preparation. The episodes have been shot in different restaurants of the south of Sicily. Each episode is introduced by a typical sicilian song and concluded by a sicilian proverb recited by a "Cantastorie" (story-teller). Some of the songs will sound very familiar because since they were heard also in famous movies like "The Godfather" or "The Sicilian". A new series is in preparation on the cuisine of western Sicily.

"My dream is to live in a society where dogs are respected and appreciated for what they are"

I imagine a place where people take their dogs for walks with reciprocal pleasure in the streets with harness and loose leash, free of leash in the parks, the woods and fields. No shouting and scolding but a happy atmosphere of mutual understanding between dog and owner and a friendly tolerance with the other people ".
