

BRANCALEONE AT THE CRUSADES BRANCALEONE ALLE CROCIATE

Following the adventures of For Love and Gold (1966), our medieval hero, Brancaleone Da Norcia, forms a new army and sets out to return the baby to his father: a prince fighting in the Crusades. He is joined by a team of wackos and on the way he meets even crazier weirdos: a treacherous German crusader, a princess disguised as a leper, a beautiful witch, and a king who speaks only in rhyme. On reaching Palestine, Brancaleone obtains the title of baron from the child's father. He is therefore chosen as a champion in a tournament to solve the dispute between the Christians and the Saracens in the siege of Jerusalem.

DIRECTOR	MARIO MONICELLI
GENRES	CLASSIC, COMEDY, HISTORICAL
RUNTIME	117 min.
PRODUCTION YEAR	1970
STATUS	Completed
CAST	VITTORIO GASSMAN, ADOLFO CELI, STEFANIA SANDRELLI, GIGI PROIETTI, PAOLO VILLAGGIO