

CHOCOLATE KISSES LEZIONI DI CIOCCOLATO 2

Kamal's and Mattia's lives went in different directions after having won a competition for "chocolate makers": Mattia's gone back to construction but with little work and Kamal has opened a chocolate shop but with no customers. These two former friends' paths are about to cross again. Kamal has a new ambitious plan for making chocolates, and Mattia wants in, even if he has to pretend to be Egyptian again. But Kamal still does not trust him especially now that his beautiful daughter Nawal has returned from studying abroad. The last thing he wants is for her to get caught up with a womanizer like Mattia. It will not be long before things get complicated, and once again, among all the misunderstandings and plot twists, only chocolate can bring everyone together.
