

FOUR TAXI DRIVERS I QUATTRO TASSISTI

Four stories about taxi-drivers, these drivers who are constantly in contact with the most varied types of people, and who, often, on account of their job, are forced into the centre of very strange events.

“THE BRIDEGROOM”: a not very willing fiancée is convinced by a female taxi driver to abandon his bride-to-be and marry her instead.

“A GOOD DEED”: taken in by the graces of a false nun, a taxi driver is cheated out of a considerable sum of money.

“TREASURE HUNT”: during a night-time treasure hunt, a taxi driver is first of all flattered and then brusquely dismissed by an eccentric high society dame.

“THE MAN IN BLUE”: a taxi driver picks up a mad assassin as his fare, who attempts to eliminate him since he is the only witness to his crime.
