

SHE GOT WHAT SHE ASKED FOR LA BELLEZZA D'IPPOLITA

Jason is a thief coming back in Greece to pass some years in jail. But he escape and is forced to steal a tooth from the mouth of a corpse. He's then chased by the police (of course), by two different gangs and by a mysterious Major Clark. Everyone wants the tooth and everyone is willing to kill Jason to get it and so he becomes a moving target. He has only a friend: Pizza. His girl Greta is dead, or at least so it seems. Rumba is Pizza's friend and has a job as stripper in his night club. But she is really sincere? And Jason, the moving target, will save his life and that of his friends?
