

LUCKY AND ZORBA LA GABBIANELLA E IL GATTO

A seagull, poisoned by the oil in the sea, is dying. She has just the time to entrust her egg to Zorba the cat, who has to make her three promises: to not eat the egg, to take care of it and to teach her child to fly. The young seagull, called Lucky, grows up in the cats community, and Zorba has the difficult task to bring this unexpected daughter up. Little Lucky has to find her identity and understand that she is not a cat, before she learns to fly. Meanwhile, with her cat friends she has to face the dangerous rats who are planning to get out from the sewer, take the power and announce the Reign of the Big Mouse.
