

MARTINO'S SUMMER L'ESTATE DI MARTINO

The summer of 1980 was a tragic summer of bloodshed, marked by the shooting down of the DC9 plane in the skies over Ustica in June and the terrorist bombing in Bologna's train station on the 2nd of August: two tragic episodes that are the backstage of the story of Martino, an Italian boy, and Clark, an American captain. A relationship that began and developed by teaching how to surf, and taught each one of them how to tackle their ghosts.
