

THE LITHIUM CONSPIRACY BREVE STORIA DI LUNGI TRADIMENTI

Nowadays you don't conquer a country. You buy it.

Giulio, torn between a wife who's labeled him a workaholic and a job that seems to have no future after a banking merge, is being practically pushed on a plane to a place called Queimada in South America. He's given no information on what he should be doing with the cryptic statement "the less you know, the better"...
