SYNOPSIS

In a working-class area of Sweden, sisters Laura (16), Mira (12) and Steffi (7), get by on their own, left to their own devices by an absent mother. With summer on the way and no parents around, life is wild and carefree, vivacious and anarchic. But when social services call a meeting, Laura has to find someone to impersonate their mom, or the girls will be taken into foster care and separated. Laura keeps the threat a secret, so as not to worry her younger sisters. But as the moment of truth draws closer, new tensions arise, forcing the three sisters to negotiate the fine line between the euphoria of total freedom and the harsh realities of growing up.

SYNOPSIS

Mona is a senior bodybuilder who is training for a world championship, her existence is a spasmodic quest for perfection and beauty.

Her life is steadily followed by her coach who monitors her single daily actions like a demiurge and an artist: her sleep, her nutrition, her training sessions, her doping dosage, her psychology and even her sexual life. This routine gets interrupted when a young guy appears: a single brief sexual encounter over-balances her discipline and her will. Her body, like an inner voice, will start evolving into a separate entity with a different personality.

SYNOPSIS

Christopher Clark, an eco-warrior, has established his unique Outpost of Progress in the heart of the Amazon rainforest – a utopian society based on the perfect balance between nature and technology, run and safeguarded by the forest's dwellers.

Unfortunately, the situation is getting worse every year, and a new wildfire now threatens to destroy the Outpost. In a daring bid to capture the world's attention about the impending catastrophe and to urge the Brazilian government to create a protective reserve, Chris decides to take a bold gamble: organizing a spectacular Pink Floyd concert amid the verdant inferno.

After all, in the mind of a dreamer, the realm of possibilities knows no bounds.

SYNOPSIS

In Vicenza, a beautiful Italian art city, a young wealthy couple joyfully welcomes the birth of a long-awaited daughter in the early 1980s. But the child's face is disfigured by a red birthmark that covers half her face. This spot haunts the mother to the point that she rejects her responsibilities as a mother. The child's aunt, a famous concert pianist, takes over her education, thus discovering her exceptional musical talent.
